KAUAI HAS SIX COMPANIES OF THE NATIONAL GUARD

In a Whirlwind Tour Colonel Sam Johnson and Lieutenant Whitener Muster in Approximately Four Hundred Men-Manager Broadbent Named as Major and Other Officers Are Appointed-the Companies

Kauai now has a battalion and a half of infantry—six companies—being a part of the Third Regiment, National Guard of Hawaii, the other half of the regiment being on the island of Maui.

Colonel Sam Johnson and Lieutenant Whitener, who have been here since Friday morning, completed their labors this morning and will have a final wind up in a luncheon to the new officers and a few prominent citizens at the Fairview Hotel at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

FIELD OFFICERS

E. H. W. Broadbent, of Lihue, major of the battalion.

L. D. Timmons, of Lihue, adjutant of the battalion.

LINE OFFICERS

Company A, Lihue—C. Maser, first lieutenant commanding.

Company B, Lihue—Wm. Henry Rice, first lieutenant commanding.

Second Lieutenants, Wm. C. Avery and Ernest Fountain.

Company C, Kalaheo—Wallace M. Cooper, first lieutenant commanding.

Second Lieutenants, Chas. F. Dillingham and Dr. A. R. Glaisyer.

Company D, Kealia—E. W. Kopke, first lieutenant commanding.

Second Lieutenant, Albert Horner, Jr.

Company E, Makaweli—H. S. Truscott, first lieutenant commanding.

Second Lieutenants, G. T. Greig and A. Q. Marcellino.

Company F, Waimea—W. O. Crowell, first lieutenant commanding.

Second Lieutenants, August Kruse and Richard N. Oliver.

Upon completion of examinations, which will shortly take place, the commanding first lieutenants will be commissioned captains.

Two lieutenants remain to be appointed for Company A, Lihue, and one for Company D, Kealia, at this writing—although these appointments will likely be made during today.

Major Broadbent will complete the appointments for his staff, and the commanding officers of companies will recommend men for appointment as sergeants and corporals. Companies will have, besides a first sergeant, sergeants for each section of fifteen men and corporals for each squad of seven men.

Speaking last night of the results on Kauai, Colonel Johnson said: "I certainly appreciate the cordial reception I have met with at every hand and the assistance rendered me by leading citizens in organizing the Kauai companies of the National Guard. It has been strenuous work, but I had anticipated that it would be for the reason that Kauai has never had a National Guard organization and many people were naturally in the dark, more or less, as to what it was all about."

Tonight I feel satisfied. You have as fine bunch of men to start with as I have ever seen anywhere, and I am delighted with the way the proposition has shaped out in every particular. Kauai will soon have a battalion of which she may well be proud, for they will be a credit to any regiment.

Almost constant rains since I have been here have made traveling more or less disagreeable, but most of all made it difficult to assemble the men for enrollment. The showings, however, of the different companies are really ahead and above expectations, even for best conditions.

The department will proceed as rapidly as possible with the work of uniforming and equipping the companies, and in a short time the battalion will be in shape to take on all of its peace-time functions.

The Colonel expressed himself as especially grateful to Rev. Hans Isenberg and Sheriff William Henry Rice for courtesies and valuable advice and assistance while here.

Col. Samuel I. Johnson, Adjutant-General, and Lieutenant Whitener, U. S. A., arrived in the W. G. Hall Friday morning at Koloa and came directly to Lihue, where interviews were held right away with various prominent citizens. The visiting officers then proceeded to the Waimea side of the island, meeting the military enthusiasts over there and arranging for enrollments and the organization of companies. Meetings were held at Makaweli Saturday night and again yesterday afternoon; at Kalaheo Sunday morning, Waimea Sunday noon, Lihue Sunday afternoon and Kealia yesterday morning.

Company A, at Lihue, showed up with 72 men, while Company B, also Lihue, produced 103 men. The Kalaheo company (C), composed principally of Portuguese, made the start with 86 men; while Company F, Waimea, composed mostly of Hawaiians, also started with 86. Makaweli will have Company E and Kealia Company D.

Colonel Johnson worked rapidly and as far as practicable provided for officers.

The organization as it now stands gives Kauai six companies, or one and a half battalions. Those companies, together with the six companies of the island of Maui, will complete the new regiment, which will be known as the Third Infantry, N. G. H. It is understood that on account of Maui having the oldest companies, the office of regimental colonel will go to that island, and the man selected for the honor is H. A. Baldwin, of Punahoa. It is just possible that the lieutenant-colonel may be a Kauai man.

Among the officers not included in the above, and still to be appointed, are: One each, athletic officer, inspector of rifle practice, range officer, battalion quartermaster, surgeon and chaplain. Some of the commissioned officers will be detailed to several of these lines of duty.

Colonel Johnson hopes to have one of the regular companies of the United States army, stationed on Oahu, come to Kauai before long to drill with and assist in instructing the companies just formed.

It will be several weeks before the Kauai companies can be uniformed and equipped. For uniforms, for instance, all the process of measuring and fitting the men will have to be gone through with. Early in the new year, however, the battalion should be in smooth, working order.

Colonel Johnson and Lieutenant Whitener will sail in the W. G. Hall this afternoon for Honolulu. (Continued on page 5.)

JAPANESE COOK MEETS ACCIDENT

Yoshitomi, cook for Dr. Derby, Lihue, while coasting on his bicycle down Lihue mill road about noon Saturday, ran into the buggy of Luna August Braun, of Lihue plantation, was thrown and so badly injured that he is now laid up in the hospital.

The bicycle was smashed and the rider was thrown hard on the road. A Japanese auto man took the injured fellow to the hospital, where it was found that his left year was split and his left collar bone broken. He will be in the hospital for a month.

It is stated that at the time the road was quite slippery, on account of recent showers, which may have had most to do in causing the accident.

BOGUS CHECK MEN FINED IN COURT

Two Filipinos, Joachim Reyes and Domingo, were fined fifty dollars each in Judge Dole's court, Lihue, on Friday for obtaining money under false pretenses.

It appears that Reyes is a pen artist, and a good one at that. With his pen he produced facsimiles of bank checks, supposed to be drawn on the "American Bank." These false checks were given to a third Filipino named Primitivo Bodalan to negotiate for cash.

One of the fictitious checks was cashed. It was for $200. Another one, running into four figures, was offered to a Chinaman at Koloa. The latter became suspicious, however, and told the Filipino that he did not have so much cash on hand then. Would he call next day.

In the meanwhile the arrest took place.

County Attorney Kaeo first charged the men with counterfeiting, but could not make that charge stick, as, under the law, counterfeiting applies only to actual money and not to checks.

The work of making the bogus checks was done at Anahola, and it is feared that many Chinamen, and others in the remoter districts have been victimized.

A peculiarity is that the checks are not signed, so that only a very ignorant man would be "taken in" by them.

RANKINS HAVE AN ENJOYABLE DANCE

A very enjoyable dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Rankin, at their home at Makaweli Wednesday evening. In spite of rather inclement weather the majority of guests invited, responded.

Pretty and effective decorations were noticeable, with bougainvillea the predominant color. Among those present were: Misses Ella and Etta Lee, Esther Hofgaard, Marie Anderson, Florence Jobsen, Irene Thomson, B. Martin and Mrs. Rankin; Messrs. Deverill, Cooper, Dunn, Horner, Vincent, "Bill" Coney, Asner, L'Orange and Guy Rankin.

Hyades A Caller

The freighter Hyades arrived at Port Allen yesterday morning from Honolulu, bringing 900 tons of freight for merchants in that vicinity. She will likely get away about noon today for Kahului, taking 250 empty drums and 1,000 cases of pineapples.

Frederick Spillner and Augustin Louis were admitted to citizenship in Judge Dickey's court last Friday. The former renounced allegiance to Kaiser Wilhelm, while the latter ceases to be a citizen of the Portuguese Republic.

THE WOLF-BRYANT WEDDING EVENT

The wedding of Miss Helen Bryant, of Makaweli, and Wm. Wolf, superintendent of the Lawai cannery, took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Pakala, at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, quite a large number of people from that part of the island between Lihue and Mana being present.

The ceremony was performed under a huge bell in the parlor, Rev. C. D. Milliken officiating. Miss Schimmelfennig was the bridesmaid and County Supervisor W. D. McBryde best man.

A wedding supper was served under a specially constructed lanai, after which dancing was enjoyed, under a lanai in the front lawn, until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolf will make their future home at Lawai.

COURT OFFICIAL OF KOLOA IN BAD

Judge Kapahee And Two Lawyers Must Stand New Examinations

A mild sensation was created in legal and court circles last Thursday when Circuit Judge Dickey gave instructions that when District Judge D. K. Kapahee, Representative James K. Kula and Attorney Blake, all of Koloa, apply for renewal of their licenses to practice law they be required to undergo new examinations.

It has been the practice in the past to renew the licenses of district court lawyers from year to year without re-examination, although the court, if not satisfied as to the qualifications of any lawyer, may require an examination at the end of any license period. In fact this is not infrequently done in the cases of lawyers, but district magistrates have hitherto been supposed to be so well versed in the law as to render re-examination entirely unnecessary.

The direct cause of the order was probably the case of a well known woman who was given an unusual sentence in the Koloa court. It appears that by certain manipulation she obtained possession of the sum of $45, which belonged to other parties; but did it in such a way that the offense against the law was no greater than that of borrowing money. The woman returned the money thus obtained, making restitution of $35 at one time and $10 later. About this time, however, she was brought before the court, Judge Kapahee, in his wisdom, decided that she was guilty of gross cheat and sentenced her to be imprisoned for three months.

In his instructions that the district magistrate and the attorneys be re-examined as to their legal qualifications, Judge Dickey suggested that they prepare themselves particularly on the law relating to gross cheat.

Kapahee is the first magistrate of Koloa district, the second magistrate being Judge Schimmelfennig. Blake and Kula are leading practitioners of the district.

Some School Changes

Mrs. Thompson has been appointed to the fifth grade in the Lihue school, Miss Christian, who had been filling that position, taking the first grade in the old Japanese school near the mill.

Mrs. Dyson resigned from the Kekaha school and left last Friday. Her place is being filled temporarily by a local substitute, and until a new teacher can be brought from California.

Mrs. C. B. Hofgaard has returned from an extended visit at the Exposition.
